Hello Ron,

Yes, you are welcome to use Lowell property for your Orienteering event. Based on previous maps, it looks like there will be no markers in or around our existing buildings – is that correct? Also, do you have an updated certificate of insurance?

Thanks,
Kyler

Thanks Amanda.

Hi Kyler,

We've presented small navigation training events on Lowell property for more than a decade. Our participants do little more than hike on the property. We're happy to meet any restrictions you might have for our event. We can provide more information as needed. Thanks.
